- Davidoff.* Violoncello School. May be used by students acquainted with German.
- Dotzauer.* Op. 155. Violoncello School.

Technical Exercises.

Every species of bowing, scales, arpeggi, thirds and sixths through all the keys, are here systematically and concisely arranged. Should form a part of daily practice as soon as a moderate proficiency in the 2nd, 3rd and 4th positions is gained. (Edition No. 7772.)

Step 2.

- Dotzauer.* 40 Studies. (Edition No. 7771.)

Merk, J. 20 Exercises; Op. 11. An excellent book of studies, carefully revised and fingered by O. Brückner. The original Viennese edition contained so many misprints as to considerably discount the usefulness of this work to students. Used in the examinations of the Associated Board. (Edit. No. 7777.)
Dotzauer. 12 Studies; Op. 107. Dotzauer was the most prolific writer of studies for the Violoncello that ever lived, and might fitly be called the Czerny of the 'Cello. An excellent selection of his studies, re-arranged in progressive order, (Steps 1—4) might be adopted; viz., a selection in 2 Bks., published by Peters.

Fitzenhagen, W. Op. 39. Cavatine, Ländler, Tarantelle. Similar in character to Op. 38, but with a few easy double stops in the Tarantelle. In both sets a full, well written piano part adds to the player's interest. (7678.)

Short Studies for the Violoncello without thumb positions, by

CARL SCHROEDER.

Augener's Edition, No. 7,779.

Price 1s. net.

"This little book of easy studies for violoncello is apparently the result of an intimate acquaintance with the requirements of a teacher of the instrument. They are essentially of a technical character, and embrace studies in bowing, fingering, arpeggi, shifting, skipping strings, gliding the finger, the springing stroke, &c. To teacher and student alike they will prove invaluable, and it is with pleasure we notice the appearance of works which are designed to lighten the arduous work of those who give practical instruction in playing on stringed instruments." — Monthly Musical Record, April 1894.
